In 2014, the calendar followed the standard liturgical year, beginning with Advent in late November 2013 and concluding with Ordinary Time in late November 2014, before transitioning into the new liturgical year (Cycle A, B, or C).

The Three-Year Lectionary Cycle

The Catholic Church employs a three-year cycle of readings?Years A, B, and C?which rotate through Gospel texts predominantly from Matthew, Mark, and Luke, respectively. The Gospel of John is woven throughout, especially during specific seasons like Easter and Christmas. In 2014, the readings adhered to Cycle A, focusing on Matthew?s Gospel, which emphasizes Jesus? teachings and the Kingdom of Heaven.

Historical Context of Offeratory Readings in the Seventh-day Adventist Tradition

Origins and Evolution

The practice of offering readings during worship services is deeply rooted in Christian liturgical history. Traditionally, offertory readings involved scripture passages, prayers, or hymns presented during the collection of tithes and offerings. For Seventh-day Adventists, who emphasize a holistic approach to worship that integrates Scripture, prayer, and giving, offertory readings have evolved as a meaningful expression of devotion.

In the early 20th century, the Adventist church emphasized the importance of scriptural engagement during all facets of worship, including the offering. Over time, regional conferences like Florida adapted this practice to reflect local customs, cultural influences, and theological emphases.

Shift Toward Thematic and Scriptural Focus

Historically, offertory readings in the Florida Conference have transitioned from simple scriptural quotations to more elaborate, thematic selections. These readings often underscore themes such as stewardship, gratitude, faithfulness, and the Second Coming of Christ.
